

Born in Casablanca, Morocco, Mr. Mehdi TAZI graduated from the engineering and management school Télécom Paris Sud in 1999 and received an MBA from the European Institute of Business Administration (INSEAD) in 2004.

He began his professional career in KPMG Consulting France in 1999. In 2005, he joined Saham Group as Development Director. In 2008, he was appointed Managing Director of Isaaf MondialAssistance, a subsidiary of the group, after serving as Deputy Managing Director for 14 months. In 2014, he became the CEO of Saham Assurance after spending 3 years as Managing Director. Between 2010 and 2017, he was a board member of several insurance companies of the Group: Saham Insurance Morocco, Niger, Rwanda, and Angola, as well as Taslif and CAT Morocco. He also held the position of CEO of GA Angola Seguros from 2013 to 2014. In 2017, Mr. TAZI acquired the firm Beassur and sold, two years later, a minority share to Marsh, the world leader in insurance brokerage and risk management.

Mr. TAZI was distinguished by the Jeune Afrique Group, in 2013, among the 25 young African leaders and, in 2020, among the top 50 disruptors. He was chosen to be amongst the Top 10 economic leaders of the continent by the prestigious Choiseul Institute for three consecutive years from 2014 to 2016.

In terms of his civic engagement, Mehdi TAZI was Vice-President of the Moroccan Federation of Insurance and Reinsurance Companies (FMSAR) from 2010 to 2017. He also spent four years from 2010 to 2014 as the President of the Royal Moroccan Federation of Sports for All (FRMSPT).

Within CGEM, he served as Vice-President in charge of the New Growth Drivers before being elected by his peers on the 22nd of January 2020, as General Vice-President of the Confederation and reelected on the 16th of May 2023.